Standing at the threshold of a bright future, we, the Class of 1957, pause and look back through the many doors which we have opened during our years on the Hill. When, as Sophomores, we struggled with the ponderous gates of higher education, we found that there was no key with magical powers to swing them wide at a touch. We could open the doors only through hard work and honest effort. Progressing through Needham High School, we realized that there was a variety of portals through which we might pass, among them, Language, Literature, the Sciences, and the Arts. Although these doors seemed formidable to us at first, with strength, experience, and the aid and encouragement of the faculty who "oiled the hinges", we were able to open the doors and cross the threshold of education. Now, at graduation, as we receive the well-earned symbol of an education, we look ahead and know that in our hands we hold a master key to any door.

Simple poise and gracious elegance are foremost in our minds when we think of Miss Gates; for her sincere interest and amiability have always cheered us, have enlivened both her classes and her conversation. By her delight in giving us information, she has furthered our understanding of more than science.

Ah, subtle man, how many are thy mischiefs.

Once again the Exchange Club of Needham has made it possible for one of our classmates to have the opportunity to visit abroad during the summer months. From a group of about twelve applicants Judy MacLeod was chosen to represent Needham High School. Under the sponsorship of The American Field Service Association Judy lived with the Koch family in Hamburg, Germany. With her German "sister" Rosemarie she visited the Baltic Sea and toured the German countryside. Her last week in Europe was spent in Paris, where she, along with exchange students from other countries, continued to take pictures and slides to preserve their memories of the trip.

Students such as Judy gain valuable experience in meeting and living with people from many nations. These young people are examples to our foreign neighbors of the average American student. Through this program many ideas and ideals are exchanged for their common benefit.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: David Rising, President; Linda Eriksen, Secretary; Mary Casey, Treasurer; David Lynch, Vice-president. Inset: Donald Hooper, Honorary President.

As in past years the Class of 1958 has contributed wholeheartedly to the school this year. The members of the student body who guided the Junior Class are David Rising, President; David Lynch, Vice-president; Linda Eriksen, Secretary; and Mary Casey, Treasurer. In addition, Don Hooper, who so ably held the office of president last year, unable to attend school because of illness this year, was named honorary president of the Class.

Tomorrow's Seniors— the Juniors, the Class of 1958...

The willing aid of the faculty class advisors, Mrs. Ambrose, Mrs. Dow, Mr. Hicks, and Mr. Gerbino, has given the Juniors success throughout the year, notably in connection with the Junior Prom, held in January, and with the class assembly program.

While participating in such athletics as football, basketball, baseball, and field hockey, the members of the Class of 1958 have shown marked ability and sportsmanship. Out of the eight varsity cheerleaders representing Needham, the Juniors are proud that four are members of their class. These girls are Mary Casey, Barbara Fox, Kathy Guild, and Miggy Mueller, all of whom contributed immeasurable spirit at football and basketball games.

Each of the Juniors has successfully completed three years on the Hill; now looking forward through the final portal of their high school education, the Juniors strive competently toward their senior year.

Displaying enthusiasm and ambition, the Class of 1959 began its second year on the Hill. Under the leadership of President, Glen Eberly; Vice-president, John Hines; Secretary, Nancy Pardy; and Treasurer, Barbara Read, the Class sponsored a successful hop and an assembly program that revealed their ability to work together as an effective unit.

The class advisors, Mrs. Messer, Mrs. O'Neil, Mr. Chambers, Mr. Heinrich, and Mr. Herlihy, also contributed their time and energies to these successful activities.

Several members of this Class excelled in numerous school activities. Phil Castagnetti, Ray Arra, Susan Williams, and Davy Wood all received varsity awards in their various sports. Many Sophomores were band members and drum majorettes. A number of Sophomore names appeared on the Honor Roll, showing the Class's high scholastic rating.

The death of Joanne Grenier brought sadness to her classmates. In Joanne's memory the Sophomores established a scholarship for any girl of outstanding merit in the Class of 1959 who enters the field of nursing.

Having proven its ability to participate in school activities and to maintain an impressive scholastic level, the Class of 1959 has become an important part of N. H. S.

The doors on the Hill had to open wide this year to admit the largest class yet to enter Needham High School. The Freshman Class, under the leadership of their officers Duncan McNaughton, President; Barry Nickerson, Vice-president; Nancy Bell, Secretary; and Petra Smith, Treasurer, have enjoyed a successful year.

They have supported both the varsity sports and their own freshman teams with equal vigor. Their teams had many members who showed fine ability and who should strengthen our school varsity teams in later years.

Their class advisors, who have helped to make their first year in Needham High School a successful one are Miss Harrington, Miss Lewis, Mr. Clapp, Mrs. Winslow, and Mr. Breunig.

The combined athletic and scholastic ability of the Class of 1960 will make their years on the Hill a wonderful experience.

... the powers that be ...

In addition to its numerous duties, the Student Council also had this year the added responsibility of helping our new principal, Dr. Patterson, become acquainted with Needham High School and its students. Under the direction of its new advisers, Miss Henry and Mr. Skinner, the Council efficiently maintained the high standard for which the school has always been noted.

Among the problems which confronted the Student Council this year was the growth of the student body. Because of the large number of students who now attend the school, the Council has found it necessary to strictly enforce all rules pertaining to students' conduct. In consideration of this, the Council has been working with the Needham Youth Community Council for the purpose of organizing outside activities to encourage worthwhile pastimes for students.

Another project which the Council undertook this year was the complete management of the weekly assemblies. This task included the preparation of two simultaneous assemblies during many of the weeks throughout the school year.

Led by its capable officers, Colin Backer as president, Neil MacKenzie as vice president, Kathy Eastman as secretary, and Roger Miller as treasurer, the Student Council enjoyed an active year in service to the school.

"The meeting will please come to order."

Under the efficient leadership of Susan MacDonald as Editor-in-Chief, the Advocate board began its duties of gathering material and arranging articles early in September. Committees were appointed to decide on the paging, theme, and dedication. The Advocate meetings were held every first and third Friday during organization period. Additional meetings were required on some afternoons for voting on the cover of the yearbook, the senior portfolio, and other necessary matters.

Sarah Bosworth, Make-Up Editor; Cynthia Cooke, Business Editor; and Sandra DeFazio, Photography Editor, ably assisted Sue in producing the Advocate for 1957. These girls worked many hours after school in order to have the yearbook ready to go to press before the deadline. Advocate's many problems would never have been solved without the helpful and understanding guidance of Miss Durgin, Miss Steele, and Mr. Ferrett, the advisers.

As secretary of Advocate, Suzanne Parris kept an accurate record of every meeting and decision made by the board. It was voted to include candid shots in the ad section and to arrange for the supplementary issue again this year. Discussions and debates were an integral part of every meeting, and each member of the staff tried to contribute his best work in order to have the Advocate of 1957 the best ever presented on the Hill.

"The meeting is adjourned."

Standin' on the corner . . .

Needham High School is fortunate in having a band that adds color to its assemblies, football games, and numerous other activities. Freshmen and upperclassmen alike are attracted to the band as an opportunity for collective and individual musical expression. Always present at rallies and special functions, the band is under the expert direction of Mr. Harris, whose special arrangements of popular and traditional songs have done much to make the band the important part of school life that it has become.

The drum majorettes have been especially outstanding this year. Not only did their vitality and enthusiasm add to the football games, but their precision marching and twirling, led by head majorette Noreen Baker, helped them to win many trophies in competition with other schools.

The opportunities to take part in musical activities are unusually good at Needham High, and the number of students participating is impressive. Under the direction of Mr. Heald are the Girls' Glee Club, a group of more than 250 members, and the A cappella choir, a mixed group of twenty-eight. Mr. Harris has charge of the Boys' Glee Club, which has about forty members and meets Fridays during organization period.

Needham High School is proud of all its musical organizations, which have performed often outside of school as well as in assemblies, concerts, and other school activities.

A stage door may someday be opened by one of the members of the Drama Club. Until that opportunity comes, the young actors and actresses will continue to meet during organization period on Monday. The fifty-nine members receive instruction in acting, make-up, directing, and production from Mrs. Rudy in one class and Mrs. Messer and Mrs. Winslow in another.

One section of the Drama Club under the direction of Mrs. Rudy, presented the play "Elmer" for the student body in assembly. Mrs. Messer and Mrs. Winslow's group dramatized the farce "The Mad Breakfast". The Christmas program, directed by Mrs. Messer and Mrs. Winslow, was a significant production of the season.

To become a member of the Modern Dance Club this year, it was necessary to audition so that the Club would be formed only of girls who were sincerely interested in creative dance interpretations. This small, selected group of girls, under the direction of Miss Brown, were taught during the first few weeks some of the basic steps of imaginative dancing. Then, after listening to records, the girls learned to interpret the music in a graceful and artful manner. Meeting once a week, the group worked hard for their presentation of the year's work in the Girls' Gym Meet. Furthermore, this year the Club presented its talents for public approval at the Christmas assembly and at a singing dance program.

During the past year students of Needham High School interested in photography have enjoyed the opportunities offered by the Camera Club for experience in this field.

Mr. Rourke, head of the art department, supervised the club's more than thirty-five members in their activities. Also providing leadership were the officers: President, Bob Evans; Vice-president, Wayne Cyphert; and Secretary-treasurer, Bruce Tibbetts.

The club, which met every other Friday in organization period, received instruction and practiced their photographic skills. Through their outside assignments and work in the darkroom, the members broadened their knowledge of various phases and techniques of photography.

Considering the increasing interest in Audio-Visual Club this year, membership was limited to the three upper classes. The organization, consisting of approximately fifty boys, assisted Mr. Protheroe in the school's program of educational films.

Activities began with a short training period during which the junior and senior members instructed the incoming sophomores in the use and management of the equipment. The club was organized into groups composed of four boys. Each week throughout the year an assigned squad was responsible for distributing the equipment in the morning, returning it to storage at the end of school, and running films when necessary. There were, however, student operators in many of the classes.

Thanks to the efficiency of the Audio-Visual groups, both students and teachers received many benefits this past year from instructional films.

Mrs. Wagner, Tom Cathcart, Neil MacKenzie, and the check-out system.

The Needham High School Memorial Library, this year increased by many volumes, is well-known to every N. H. S. student. Open each school day from 8:00 A. M. to 3:30 P. M., the library is in the charge of members of the Library Club, who assist Mrs. Wagner, the librarian, and help students to locate books. Not a small part of the Club's responsibilities is the planning and arrangement of displays in the cases outside the library, a task which has been carried out with much enjoyment and success.

Because of the large size of the Club, its eighty-seven girls and seven boys have been divided, as has been necessary for the past three years, into two groups. Elected officers of the entire club were Judy Pardy, President; Barbara Buckley, Vice-president; and Martha Hobbs, Secretary. In the freshman-sophomore group, Nancy Pardy was elected chairman, and Carolyn Benson, secretary.

The Club is grateful to Mrs. Wagner, who has guided it in all its activities.

This year the Boys' Leaders Club program, under the supervision of Mr. Maloney, proved their leadership ability in various fields of service. The eighty-two boys of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes learned the rules and regulations of all sports in order to instruct the boys' gym classes. Through their help, Leaders Club enabled the boys' gym teachers, Mr. Maloney and Mr. DeFazio, to give added attention to the ever-increasing number in their classes.

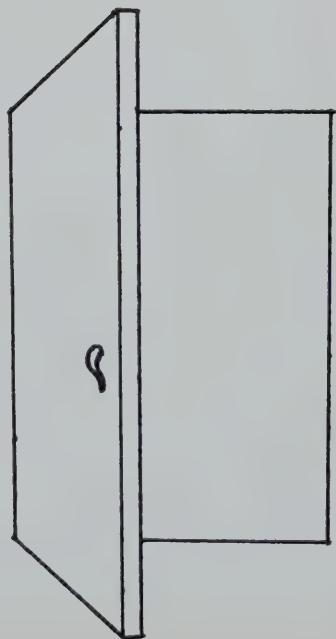

Selected members, known as class proctors, worked for six-week sessions as locker room supervisors and office secretaries. Leaders Club is an example of the aid that boys can give to their instructors while they themselves learn the value of co-operation.

The Rockets of Needham High, led by Co-Captains Dick Sherman and Gary Hebert, had the most successful season of any Needham High football team since 1939. The team, playing in the newly formed Bay State League, compiled a record of six wins and three losses.

The high point of the season was the thrilling victory over a highly favored Natick team. Needham's victory in that game snapped Natick's eighteen game win streak, which started when Needham tied Natick 13-13 in the second game of the 1954 season. The Natick game was one in which both the backfield and the line starred, along with tremendous support from the Needham fans, to form a winning combination.

In the traditional Thanksgiving Day game a determined, fired-up Wellesley team used an effective passing offense to beat Needham 33-14. Once again the record is even, at twenty-five wins each, in the rivalry which goes back before the turn of the century. Next year Needham, led by Co-Captains Bruce Bettencourt and Bob Giumetti, should break the deadlock in this series with a victory.

Bob Carreiro, a senior lineman, and Mike Hughes, a senior back, join Hebert and Sherman at the head of the list of outstanding players on the Needham squad during the 1956 season. The coaching staff of Head Coach Ralph Parmigiane and Assistant Coaches James Maloney, Russell Johnston, John Chambers, and Charles Jingoian, did a fine job with the team and deserve the success which the team attained.

Needham High's Basketball team of 1956-57 had all the speed and fight of last year's club, but the team lacked height—the tallest starting player was Co-Captain and center Colin Backer at 6'1". What the team lacked in size, however, was compensated for by "scrap." The team's aggressive, pressing, man-to-man defense turned the tide in Needham's favor in many close games. With a regular season record of eleven wins and six losses, the team barely missed qualifying for the Tech Tourney. The last league game with traditional rival Wellesley was a nip and tuck battle right down to the last second. Needham fought hard but lost the game by one point, thus losing their chance to enter the Tech Tourney. Needham was invited to the Small Schools Tournament, however, where they again displayed fine playing ability and sportsmanship.

This was the first year for the Needham Cross-Country team in the new six-team Puritan Division of the Middlesex League. The team did quite well and came in second in the Middlesex Division Championships. They also placed fifth in the state meet.

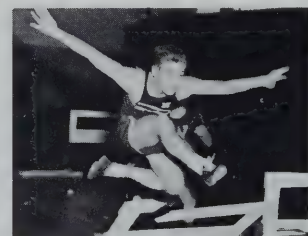

Indoor track also enjoyed a good season this year. Coached by Mr. West, they became the State Championship Indoor Relay Team.

Both track teams were captained by Dick Brooks.

Although these two sports may not be closely followed by many of the students, they are, nevertheless, a real credit to Needham High.

Under the leadership of Coach DeFazio, Needham's wrestling team had a reasonably successful season, concluding with a record of five wins, four losses, and one tie. Evidence of wrestling's growing popularity at Needham is shown by the number of boys who tried out for the team, a total of forty-nine. Although there were no spectacular individual records, Steve Johns and Co-Captain Angie Scarcella came close to undefeated sea-

... Needham Rockets on to victory ...

Needham hockey fans this year saw a demonstration of hard, spirited play. The highlights of this year's season were two wins over previously unbeaten Norwood, one in play-off competition. The team sported fast, aggressive line play and goal tending bordering on the sensational. Rockets Co-Captain Ron Tocci, the team's high scorer, was in the top ten of the Bay State League. Dave Lombard starred in the Needham nets, turning in two shutouts in a row in crucial play-

Cooke connects

Coaching the field hockey team for the third year, Miss Brown led them through a triumphant season. All four classes participated advantageously since there was not so large a turnout for the sport as usual. Under the able leadership of Cynthia Cooke and Sandy Allison, the Varsity team had a more successful season this year than in the past. Ardell Fullerton and Ann Ritscher, both freshmen, were chosen to play on the Varsity team and helped spur it on to victory. Seniors, who have a very busy schedule, should also be given special mention for their afternoon hours of faithful practice. They are Pat Stone, Judy MacLeod, Daryl Dusseault, Cynthia Cooke, Barbara Stutsman, and Marcia Kelley. The following scores show the achievement of the girls during the season.

Miss DiPesa was the new coach of the girls' basketball team this year. In addition to working with the senior-junior-sophomore teams, Miss DiPesa also coached the freshman team. Through her untiring effort, the spirit and sportsmanship of the team, and leadership of the captains of the three classes, the season may be considered very successful.

The seniors, led by Daryl Dusseault as captain, won three and lost five. There were only eight girls on the senior team. They deserve to be mentioned, for they put much of their valuable time into practices and games. They are Daryl Dusseault, high scorer of the year; Mary Martha Bennett, valuable in getting rebounds; Judy MacLeod, excellent in intercepting passes; Esther Colburn, versatile team member; Pat Stone, dependable forward and efficient guard; Rita Quintilio, a superior forward; and Jo-Ann Cooper and Natasha Kent, fine substitutes. The juniors, captained by Melane Morris, won five and lost three. The sophomores lost many close games but showed wonderful sportsmanship, led by their co-captains, Gail Henderson and Sally Moore. They won two and lost six.

... the teams of tomorrow;

football, basketball, and hockey...

Freshman basketball, coached by Mr. Hunt, enjoyed a successful season. Led by Co-Captains Bob McGuinness and Paul Hesson and managed by Stuart MacMillan, the team had a record of seven wins and four losses, qualifying them to participate in the Tech Tourney. The two highest scorers were Peter Dornemann and Paul Hesson. Paul, a definite asset to the team, did an especially fine job on rebounds. Highlights of the season were the games with Norwood and Framingham, all of which the team won. The experience which the boys gained this year will help them greatly in varsity and junior varsity play next season.

First row: Jon McAlear, Bruce Emerson, Kevin Gottlieb, Bob McGuinness, Paul Hesson, Pete Dornemann, Duncan McNaughton. Second row: Gary Kasten, Dave Kilgore, Bill Bamforth, Peter Gaudet,

The freshmen football team, from a statistical point of view, had a mediocre season with a two (wins)-one (tie)-three(losses) record. In their first year in organized sport the team made up for lack of experience with spirit and determination. The highlight of the 1956 season was an eighteen-to-six Needham victory over Framingham. The patient coaching of Mr. Staruk and Mr. Jingoian molded the team into a well co-ordinated unit. The team had an able line and fast and dangerous breakaway backs. The starting lineup consisted of left end, Steve Hazard; left tackle, Russell Wise; left guard, Bob Mullen; center, Dick Praetsch; right guard, Jim McAlear; right tackle, Ricky Bridges; right end, Bill Bamforth; quarterback, Paul Hesson; left half back, Bob Wenham; right half back, Steve Moulton; and full-back, Mike DeFazio.

Under the direction of Coach John Chambers, this year's freshman hockey team skated its way to the Suburban Junior League playoffs, copping a first place tie with Belmont. The sextet had a remarkable six win—one tie record. The team's morale and the total of the wins were boosted by the fine work of goal-tender Russ Wise. Russ numbers two shut-outs among his triumphs. The squad's high-scorer was Bob Wenham with thirteen points divided between nine goals and four assists. Next came Dave Sveden, who tallied six goals and five assists for a total of eleven points. With material like this Needham can expect good varsity and J. V. teams in the future.

This year's junior varsity football team enjoyed a successful season. Their record included six wins, two losses, and one tie. Led by Captain Glenn Dawson and coached by Mr. Johnston and Mr. Chambers, the boys improved their football skills and techniques. Outstanding players on the team were Jon Nelson, Glenn Dawson, Dick Wylie, and Bill Mason. The team set a high record for next year's squad to meet.

After the completion of an exciting season the junior varsity basketball team also presented a fine record of ten wins and six losses. Under the capable direction of Coach Parmagaine and leadership of Captain Tom Pilkington the squad received valuable experience in competition, improving steadily toward the end of the season. They won consecutively their last four games and lost others by only a few points.

Congratulations to both teams for their fine records, competitive spirit, and good sportsmanship. As many of the boys will be the mainstay of the varsity squads next year, loyal Needham fans are looking forward to a successful season.

... we see a bright future for you. These past four years have served you well in preparing for it. Now that you're on your way, we wish all the good things in the world for you ... whatever you do.

We'd like to remind you of the good job opportunities right here at Carter's in your own home town. There's a lot of satisfaction and many special advantages in working for America's biggest name in underwear. So why not drop in and find out about us ... Mr. Nickerson's the man to see.

Carter's makes knit underwear and sleepwear for the whole family. One example ... this two-piece dimple knit short shorty gown with matching pant. Sweetly printed with violets, it won't wrinkle, needs no ironing and is Carter-Set processed — so it won't shrink out of fit.

SHOPPING FOR A JOB?

CHECK WHAT YOU WANT:

- ☐ *Good starting salary
with regular raises*
- ☐ Pleasant work with other girls and young men
- ☐ Prestige of a responsible job with a well-known and respected company

If your list shows three checks, then you should check into what the Telephone Company has to offer you. Smart girls are doing it now, before they graduate from high school. Come in and see our employment interviewer soon. You'll enjoy talking with her.

Act now, and you can say with pride, "I'm all set! I'm going to work with the Telephone Company!"

See the Guidance Counselor at your school, and talk first with her about when and where to apply.

Congratulations

From the Sophomore Class of '59
With all respect that's due,
Congratulations, salutations,
Seniors "bold and true."

Graduation's now at hand,
Congratulations ring;
But none are given with more zeal
Than from our class this spring.

The seniors are the mainstay
Of Needham Senior High.
The underclassmen "moan" and sigh
For graduation's nigh.

Now the leaders of our school
Depart from N. H. S.
To them we wish with all our hearts
The very, very best.
